Strategic Staffing Associates (SSA) Opens New Specialized Legal Research Division

New Division Compliments SSA's Existing National Network of Contract Attorneys

Denver, CO – April 30, 2009: Strategic Staffing Associates (SSA), a division of Library Associates Companies (LAC), announced the opening of its new Specialized Legal Research Division. Beth Maser, Senior Director of Professional Services at LAC, will be heading this new division. As a leading national litigation consultant and strategist, Beth works closely with clients to create effective research strategies. Prior to joining SSA, Ms. Maser was the Director of Business Critical Research at The History Factory and founder of Litigation Research Associates, LLC. She has an undergraduate degree in history from Washington University, a master's degree in history and public policy from George Washington University, and an MLIS from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

Ms. Maser's research experience, combined with SSA's expertise in providing contract attorney services, will benefit clients with both cost-savings and convenience.

“The addition of Beth Maser to SSA’s team of experienced legal staffing consultants means that our clients will now have seasoned research and information professionals nationwide who have direct access to the Library of Congress, the National Archives, and the National Library of Medicine, along with countless associations, federal repositories, and national universities,” says Sharon Davis, SSA’s Director of Legal Staffing.

Areas representative of SSA's specialized legal research include: Corporate Genealogy Creation, Insurance Policy Archeology, Environmental & Land Use Histories, Archival & Public Records, Literature and Prior Art searches.

“We provide the expertise and experience that attorneys need to be successful in today’s ever-changing legal environment. Strategic and targeted research is a cost-effective way of building your cases during discovery and trial preparation,” Maser says. “I am very excited to be joining such an experienced and well-known team. We look forward to taking both SSA’s current services and our new research practice nationwide.”
